Shenanigans Restaurant Saipan: Five Years and Growing

By: CNMI SBDC Staff

Growing up in a restaurant environment, the exposure to the hotel and restaurant industry from her grandparents and father, and then later studied the business aspects of the industry in college, Belen Busby was destined to open a restaurant of her own. She stated, "It's kind of a childhood dream that needed to happen." Belen was born into the industry where her grandparents owned a restaurant in the Philippines and then having worked in F&B businesses since the age of 18. She went to college and earned a degree in Hotel and Restaurant Administration and a Bachelor's of Science in Infor-

Sari Sari Outlet Open at the Agana Shopping Center

By: Fred Granillo
Business Advisor
(Guam SBDC)

Robert & Filipina "Pina" Rabago are the husband and wife team that own Sari Sari Outlet. Sari Sari in Tagalog basically means everything, but right now they've been focusing on cell phone covers and accessories. Robert and Pina have been married for 10 years with two children (girl and boy) ages 9 and 7, respectively. Robert is from Guam and Pina is from the Philippines.

Their business is truly a family run operation with Pina and Robert handling the day to day operations after work hours while their oldest daughter, Hazel Aule-rio, runs the morning shift. Even the children are there to help out after school – cleaning up, and putting the products in the pack-
